Saturday, July 9

6. “Harold Granucci: Geometry – Brunch Reception and Estate Talk” AS&R Gallery, Clinton Corners, New York

Outsider artist Harold Granucci, born in 1916, began making art at the age of 65, drawing eight hours a day until his death at age 90. The resulting geometrically-based artworks incorporate his unique view of the world in grids and sequences. His daughters will give a talk about his largely unseen body of work, which uses math-based ratios that occur in nature.

Location: AS&R Gallery, 99 Willow Lane, Clinton Corners, New York

Price: Free with RSVP

Time: 10 a.m.–12 p.m.
